

Provider Notice

Magellan's Utilization Management Committee (UMC) is seeking Licensed Mental Health Professionals who are contracted with Magellan and interested in serving on the UMC.

The Magellan's UMC is responsible for adopting and implementing UM, Recovery and Resiliency policies and standards, developing operational procedures consistent with the policies, and approving with ongoing monitoring the Utilization Management, and Resiliency Program Descriptions. In addition, the UMC also has authority over the implementation and on-going monitoring of the recovery and resiliency activities performed at the Virginia Care Management Center. The UMC consists of various internal and external stakeholders. Committee member responsibilities would entail reviewing materials ahead of scheduled meetings, attending monthly meetings (and ad hoc meetings, as needed) and providing feedback. Providers are compensated at a set rate for their time.

If you or someone you know is a Licensed Mental Health Professional (Psychologist, LCSW, LPC, LMFT, Psych Nurse Practitioners, etc.) who is a provider in good standing and participating in the Magellan Network and is interested in being considered to participate, please complete the following application. Please submit a request for an application to: vacmclinicalmanagers@magellanhealth.com.
